

GOD OR GENIE?

There's a Christianity on the earth today whose God has no other purpose than to serve man, bless man, forgive man, answer man's prayers & keep man from harm's way. That is His job description.

Should He fail in that, man issues Him a query.

This God exists for the sake of man.

There's a Christianity on the earth today that is all about man. It is man-centered, man focused, man driven.

In this version of Christianity, God is just a means to an end: man's (physical, material & spiritual) enrichment, wellness, elevation, preservation & fulfilment.

In this version of Christianity, everything we do is a means to that same end:

- our praying
- our fasting
- our bible studying
- our singing
- our programs
- our giving
- our ministries. . .

Everything.

In a clime where virtually all of man's basic needs are met, this God has no relevance.

In our own clime, if government provides all of man's basic needs, (I dare say) 95% of adherents of this version of Christianity will renounce their faith.

The God of this order of Christianity is not very different from an Arabian genie: invoke the genie and it is there to do your bidding.

It gives you no conditions
It places no demands on you to change
It cannot refuse your request
It is your servant.

Does this describe your God?
Are you in that version of Christianity?
Your Creator, Purchaser & Sustainer calls you today.
He made you for His own pleasure,
not to run errands for you.
He paid a high price to reclaim your soul
for His own purpose and pleasure.
He sustains the very breath in your nostrils.
He created you; you did not create Him.
Every created thing serves the purpose of His Creator.

So, quit from your own plans purposes, & pursuits.
Give it all up
Bow your knees in surrender
Tell Him, you surrender to His purpose.
For it's only in His will that you're free.

Now, intently seek His purpose
It's not found on the surface
You won't get it just in one day.
Be deliberate
Be persistent
Be focused
Be absolutely sincere.

Don't quit.
Every day.
Running to weeks and months.
Call His name; touch Him with your spirit
He is Spirit, He hears/feels the cry of a spirit.
He will come to you, open your eyes
to see His highest, noblest purpose,
And show you your own place
in its fulfilment in your generation.
